(OBSERVER STATION, FUSE, TOKEN / TR-BE)

Ahmet Altinbas is a Turkish/Belgian force to be reckoned with. Fuse resident and Fuse Imprint label curator he is quickly emerging from the ever so interesting and fast developing Brussels' scene. Honing his skills for years, he is renowned for his craftsmanship both as a DJ and a producer. Altinbas has released on acclaimed labels like Token Records, SK11 and Non Series proof of his high quality musical output and authentic producing style. Always layered with researched and sculpted sound design on top of impactful and toxic grooves, Ahmet has made his productions unescapable from the dancefloors.

On his own label Observer Station, home to his own creations, Altinbas is opening and exploring ways to release and share his passion for the multifaceted emotions of what connects him to music without any external constraints and keep exploring new grounds, soothing his musical curiosity without letting go of the more traditional function of dance music.

As a DJ, Altinbas has his own way of creating true journeys through carefully selecting cuts and layering them in a captivating manner, mixing compelling elements of each track on the decks to build new dynamics between them, forming a high energy experience with an ever-present underlying story telling by building different emotional phases. His podcasts on Hate, SlamRadio, Reclaim Your City and Monument are a true reflexion of this. Having played at in many cities across Europe like in Berlin, Amsterdam, Portugal, Milano and much more, as well as touring with the Token label nights, the Fuse resident also curates his own parties at the Belgium legendary institution.
