

CHLOE LULA

(TRESOR, REFUGE WORLDWIDE / US-DE)

As a DJ and producer, San Francisco born, Berlin-based artist Chloe Lula is known for atmospheric selections from across the spectrum of dark, rolling techno and electro. She started producing her first live sets in 2019, when she completed a month-long artist residency with Drew McDowall of Coil. The experience ignited her confidence in composition and allowed her to combine her classical cello training with electronics, melding granular synthesis with acoustic riffs and programmed percussion. She has since completed a second residency at EMS Studios in Stockholm and has gone on to release with Aufnahme + Wiedergabe, Sonic Groove, and Northern Electronics, among other labels. Her most recent EP, Synergy, came out on Tresor Records in July 2023, where she is also a resident DJ. Her first full-length LP is forthcoming in 2024.

As a DJ, Chloe has played at Berghain, Boiler Room, Khidi, Basement, Movement weekend in Detroit, and countless clubs and festivals across Europe, North America, and Asia. Beyond her career in music, she is a contributor to Refuge Worldwide radio, a music journalist, and a passionate advocate for other women in the electronic music industry
