

PAULA KOSKI

(TRESOR, POST BAR)

Paula Koski specializes in the space between mental and fast-paced, groovy techno. The Finnish-born, Berlin-based DJ is in her element when performing energetic peak-time or closing sets, such as at Tresor Berlin or Post Bar Helsinki, where she is a resident.

Paula is inspired by the queer techno scene, where she finds expressive freedom as a part of the LGBTQIA+ community. Integrally connected to her audience, she brings her sets to life through the experiences of like-minded people—on dance floors and across cities that most need her representation.

Paula's talent for telling stories through her sets stems from her background as a journalist, during which she began her career as a DJ. It wasn't long until her potential was recognized, and she moved to Berlin to pursue her musical aspirations. For several years, Paula continued her work as a writer for the techno monolith Monument where she was also the head of premieres and resident.

Now focusing on her own music, with appearances at Berghain, RSO, Hall Tallinn, as well as other key clubs in Europe and beyond, watch for Paula as she unites dance floors alongside the likes of DVS1, Aurora Halal, Stef Mendesidis, and more.
